

THURSDAY 12 OCTOBER MATTHEW FLINDERS ANGLICAN COLLEGE
12.30pm	Arrive and light lunch
1.00pm	Welcome Interactive Session 1: What does it take to be a school research lead? A guided interactive discussion about the nature of being a research leader in a school. How do you start? What shapes can the role take? What are the opportunities and challenges? How can you build for the future? Reflection conversations & Key message feedback
2:00pm	Provocation No. 1 Mr Stuart Meade, Principal, Matthew Flinders Anglican College A research institute: What's in it for schools? A Principal's Perspective on research investment in schools
2:30pm	Flinders Discovery Institute Launch + Afternoon Tea
3:15pm	Tour
7:00pm	RIS Network Dinner Peregian Beach Hotel, Peregian Springs
FRIDAY 13 OCTOBER ST ANDREW'S ANGLICAN COLLEGE
8:45am	Welcome tea and coffee
9:15am	St Andrew's Welcome by Principal Chris Ivey and School Tour
10:00am	Interactive Session 2: Who are we as a network? Devising a Research Invested Schools Network Position Paper Reflection conversations & Key message feedback
11:00am	Morning tea
11.20am	Provocation No. 2 Professor David Livermore, Research and Author, Boston University Research translation - why does it matter, why is it challenging and how do we overcome the barriers? Reflection conversations & Key message feedback

12:00pm	Interactive Session 3: Threads of Collaboration What can you offer, what do you need?
12:30pm	Lunch and networking
1:15pm	Interactive Session: Sharing Research Practice in Australian schools Short presentations and Q&A from research leaders around the country
2:45pm	Break Afternoon Tea
3:15pm	Provocation No. 3 Professor Doune Macdonald Pro Vice-Chancellor (Teaching and Learning), University of Queensland Research invested schools into the future: A tertiary leader's perspective Presentation + Q&A
4.00pm	Official Close
4.00pm	Drinks and networking reception, Sponsored by SAIL